1.1.75
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, August 11, 2003
www.NewCovenant.me

1. So many new things I am doing, so many things I am doing, so many new things I am doing and I, Ted, am at the heart, the core, the centrality of what I am doing. I am. I do. I am comes out of Me into and through the things I do, and I am doing many new things for great change is necessary, needed and desired.

2. Many suffer, many seek Me, many are crying out to Me in wrong places, with paradigms of thought established by man and not Me. I am establishing My paradigms in My people and blasting the paradigms which have held My people back, away, distant, afar off from Me, in poverty of thought, in abundance not, lacking many, many things which I have already provided.

3. Oh Ted, oh reader, oh hearer, oh seeker of Me, hear Me and hear Me well this day, 11th day of August, 2003. I love you and I love you deeply and I am changing many things that you, you, you have held dear, and thought were unchangeable and would never change, especially in your lifetime. But you are wrong.

4. You are Mine and I am the Creator Master Designer God Most High, and I am creating and I am changing and political systems, governments, haves and have-nots, will change. Economies will change and economics will change. And in the changes, in the mindset of all these changes, values will change and thinking will change and behavior-actions-treatment-of-others, will change.

5. I am raising up—arising some and abasing others. I am arising some and abasing others. Hear Me well, loud and clear, and think not I play or kid or jest in this most serious word of Me, My servant penning My words this day. I am arising some and abasing others. Put, place, ponder and consider well My words in this message to you this day, this day, this 11th day of August, 2003.

6. I am arising some and I am abasing others, and which I arise and which I abase, depends on, depends on, depends on you, you, them, you, and them, them and you, you, do you understand? Am I clear? Am I getting My message across to you deeply? Deeply enough for you to take action on this message to you?

7. You choose, you choose, every day, every way you choose your course of action and how you spend your time, your God given time, and how you treat each other and what you do with relationships I've brought you, and resources of resources I have entrusted you with—time, talents, people, My creation within the grasp of your hand, your sight, your empowerment.

8. You choose to know Me or choose to ignore Me.
You choose to know Me deeply or choose to ignore Me.
You choose to know Me in intimacy, know My heart, My voice, My value system, My mode of operation and what I am now doing in the earth, and how I am changing things, and why I am changing things, and when I change things, if, if, if you so choose.

9. What an 'if' I have given you. 'If' you choose Me. I give you such power. You choose. You exercise your own power of choice to choose Me and maximize Me or minimize Me in your own individual life, thinking-actions, and who you are, what you do, and what you choose to become.

10. Oh Ted, help more choose Me and open their eyes to the maximization they have forfeited being satisfied with so little, in bondage to money and man's ways and doctrines, rather than My provision and My freedom, freedom and provision I died for, died for, to give them.

11. A paycheck, a paycheck, a paycheck—so many live, live, live only for a paycheck, thinking they are living. And Ted, I have My compensation system and My networks and My schools and My teaching methods and My graduates and My ways of freedomizing and globalizing that so many of Mine have no clue of, no thought of, they haven't let Me enter the realm of their mind, their mind, their thinker/mind.

12. Their thinker/mind is submersed, muted, covered over with ways of man and historical tradition and ways not of My choosing, and even of My choosing in times past, but not for today—for even as the sons of Issachar knew the times and seasons of Israel, so I am arising My men and women, boys and girls, who man abases but I arise.

13. And when I arise, no man can abase. I am arising My Issachar's and sons of Issachar who can know and discern and perceive and communicate My times in wisdom, discernment, and skill, in halls of power, splendor, magnificence, and Ted, in humility, meekness, tenderness, respect, and love, love, love, with arrogance and pride no where around.

14. You choose this day and every sunrise how and why and if, and all other details about how you will open to Me, or not open to Me. Open to Me and the new things I do, oh please, open to Me.

15. Does My servant draw you to himself, to himself, to himself? Oh no, no, no. He draws you to Me and overtly places your hand in Mine and constantly and continuously seeks to please Me and communicate My heart and My ways, and My times to you, to prepare, prepare, prepare for Me, for My coming, for My presence, for I am and I am changing and I am turning upside down many things thought unchangeable.

16. So many will wonder where I am and I've told you, I've told you and I'm telling you again, I am at the center of what I am doing and I am doing many things that many in religious circles will never be able to imagine I am in, much less propelling, at My hand, moving as My heart moves.

17. Please come, please come, please come to Me and let Me arise you and not abase you. You choose, you choose, you choose.

I give you no list. I give you Me.
I give you no rules. I give you Me.

And choosing Me, knowing Me, knowing My Father, knowing My Spirit, you know My times and seasons and power of relationships ordained and connected through Me to Mine, and deeply fulfilling enjoyable prophet-able relationships that are profitable to all, to all, to all, in synergy, in power, in Me, One, One, One.